Bose, December 2013

from the Letter to our friends no. 57

The prior, br Enzo, in the last two months was again busy in his ministry of preaching in various cities of Italy and abroad, in addition to holding various encounters, Scripture weeks, and retreats for priests in Bose. In this period he was invited to preach to people in general and to priests by the regional episcopal conferences of Basilicata and Sicily and by the dioceses of Rimini, Milan, Como, Mantova, Asti, Pistoia, Aosta, Verona.

Br Enzo also took part in conferences and round tables of ecclesiastical and cultural nature: the theological week of FUCI at Camaldoli; the 71st course of Christian Studies at the Cittadella of Assisi; the 64th national liturgical week of the Centro Azione Liturgica in Bergamo; at the Festival of the Mind in Sarzana; at the Festival of literature in Mantova; at the Festival of philosophy in Sassuolo; at the Festival of law in Piacenza; at Torino Spiritualità; at the Pontifical Urbanian University in Rome for the 17th international conference on the Face of Christ; at the International festival of Hebrew culture at the Central Synagogue of Milan; at the Pontifical theological faculty Marianum in Rome per the conferral of the prize René Laurentin to br Giancarlo Bruni.

Outside Italy he gave talks and lectio divina in Rouen (where, in the presence of archbishop Jean-Charles Descubes, he recalled his meeting in that city with abbé Pierre, which influenced him greatly at the beginnings of Bose), in Lausanne, in Paris (where he gave a talk on "A liturgy for life" at the monastic conference organized at the Collège des Bernardins), and at the Dominican convent of La Tourette.
